GMA gets pledge of support of basic sector in battle against poverty, war on terrorism

President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo today received the pledge of support of the basic sector group called Pambansang Kilusang Para sa Batayang Sektor or Kilusang Pambayan in her administration's anti-poverty program and the campaign against all forms of terrorism.

During a dialogue held at the Heroes Hall of Malacanang, the Kilusang Pambayan members recited their declaration of support for the President's Call for Action Against Terrorism.

The Kilusang Pambayan members, headed by Marietta Primicias Goco and Nona Ricafort, chairperson and secretary general, also reiterated their pledge to support the administration's anti-poverty agenda and peace and reconciliation efforts. The support also extended to the administration's legislative agenda.

The Kilusang Pambayan represents various sectors such as women, overseas Filipino workers (OFWs), peasant/laborers, cooperatives, transport, party list, indigenous peoples, urban poor, non-governmental organizations (NGOs), and the youth, among others.
